

ST. GEORGE GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH PARISH COUNCIL &
THE ICONOGRAPHY PROJECT COMMITTEE

cordially invite you to two upcoming events

ICONOGRAPHY TEACHING DIVINE LITURGY

Sunday, November 4, 2018

8:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Participate in the Divine Liturgy on this Sunday and learn about the traditions and symbolism of iconography in our Greek Orthodox Church as taught by Father Andrew Eugenis. Follow our path and be an active part of this important project that brings us one step closer to the consecration of our St. George Greek Orthodox Church.

ICONOGRAPHY FUNDRAISER RECEPTION

Saturday, November 17, 2018

5 p.m. – 7 p.m.

Join us on this special evening as we celebrate the launch of the first phase of our Iconography Project. Meet our iconographer George Giariskanis and his team and get a close-up look at their work as they showcase their God given talent. Come and be informed on the progress of the project. Hors d'oeuvres and refreshments will be served. Donation $50 per person. Also take advantage of the opportunity to purchase a raffle ticket to win a one-of-a-kind icon of your choice to be painted by Mr. Giariskanis. All proceeds to benefit the St. George Iconography Project.

For more information contact: Jeff Michals - michals297@msn.com or 732-539-7302 or visit our website @ www.stgeorgeap.org/iconography