

Phased Reopening of St Nicholas Greek Orthodox Cathedral of Tarpon Springs

Phase One - Effective Sunday, May 31, 2020 (Registration required prior to entrance)

- Cathedral open Sundays and Major Feasts with limited seating capacity based upon Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.
- Funerals celebrated with attendance not to exceed 50 members, and following all Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.

Phase Two - Date to be determined by Parish Council in compliance with Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guideline for social distancing.

- Cathedral open for Sundays, Major Feasts, Minor Feasts, special blessings, and weekday services, with limited seating capacity based upon Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.
- Funeral and Sacraments of Baptism/Marriage allowed with attendance not to exceed 50 members, and following all Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.

Phase Three - Date to be determined by Parish Council in compliance with Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guideline for social distancing.

- Cathedral open for Sundays, Major Feasts, Minor Feasts, and weekday services, with limited seating capacity based upon Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.
- Funeral and Sacraments of Baptism/Marriage allowed with attendance not to exceed 50 members, and following all Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.
- Cathedral open for limited hours of “private prayer and reflection” with limited attendance following all Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.

Phase Four Back to Normal - Date to be determined by Parish Council in compliance with Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guideline for social distancing.

- Cathedral open for Sundays, Major Feasts, Minor Feasts, and weekday services, with no limitation on seating capacity based upon Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.
- Funeral and Sacraments of Baptism/Marriage allowed with no limitation on seating capacity based upon Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.
- Cathedral open daily for “private prayer and reflection” with no limitation on seating capacity based upon Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.
- Guided tour groups following Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta regulations, and CDC guidelines for social distancing.